GARBAGE COLLECTION SERVICES AT ANCHORAGES IN PORT OF SINGAPORE

Applicable to: The Shipping Community and Ships in Singapore Port Anchorages

- 1 MPA is currently providing garbage collection services to all vessels at the anchorages in the port of Singapore from 7.30am to 5.30pm.
- 2 This garbage collection is a free service with limited numbers of garbage bags allowed.
- 3 Ships with large quantities of garbage (in excess of the limit) may wish to make special arrangement for garbage disposal for which a fee will be charged. This special garbage collection services is also available daily from 7.30am to 5.30pm.
- 4 To improve our service levels to the port and maritime community, MPA has embarked on an initiative known as the Garbage Collection Special Service Online System (GACSS). The GACSS allows for shipping agents or ship masters to apply for the special garbage collection services online.
- 5 Shipping agents or ship masters are required to have a Marinet account to use the GACSS. The GACSS will be launched on 26 May 2014.
- 6 Ships intending to dispose their garbage before 1200hrs have to submit their application online before 1600hrs on the previous day. For online request submitted after 1600hrs, the collection service can only be done on the next day after 1200hrs. Please refer to Appendix I for charges for this service.
- 7 Please call Capt Dilshad at: 63252419 (or Fax: 63252430) or Mr. Cheong Meng Tak at Tel: 63751538 (or Fax: 62759247) for clarification of this Port Marine Notice. If you encounter technical-related issues while accessing the GACSS, please call Mr. Adam Liaw at Tel: 63751200
